October 2023

Fall is here! The kids are enjoying this cooler weather.

From the desk of the Directors

Dear ELDS Families,

Welcome to our October newsletter! We're thrilled to share the latest happenings and updates within our nurturing dayschool community. October brings with it an array of exciting activities and learning opportunities for our children, and we're excited to share these moments with you in this month's newsletter.

we and our dedicated staff are committed to providing a safe, nurturing, and enriching environment for your little ones.

Thank you for entrusting us with the care and education of your precious children. We look forward to another month of growth, laughter, and discovery!

Best,
LK & KB

ELDS EXPRESS NEWS

Teacher Highlights

Our teachers go above and beyond to nurture, educate, and care for your children. Their dedication is unwavering, their love is boundless, and their commitment to each child's well-being is truly heartwarming.

This month we received exciting news that one of our staff members, Shelby Castro, was nominated for Best of the Best-teacher!! Make sure to show your support by voting online at the Seguin Gazette or following the link on Facebook. The first round of voting will end on Oct. 31st.

Ms. Teacher of the Year, Shelby, reading to her class! They loved it!!

Parent Teacher Conferences

We encourage open communication and collaboration between parents and teachers. Should you want Please reach out to schedule a meeting or discuss your child's progress. Our team is always here to support your child's growth and development.
